

8-1-9

- (e) Rodent-Proofing. It shall be the duty of the owner or manager of any building in the Village of Vesper to make such building reasonably rodent-proof, to replace broken basement windows and, when necessary, to cover the basement window openings with hardware cloth or other suitable material for preventing rodents from entering the building through such window openings.